WORLD'S BEST AWARDS

Every year, we ask T+L readers to tell us which hotels, destinations, and companies represent the very best in travel, and for our 17th annual compendium, the roster of winners is bigger and better than ever. We've added new and expanded categories; highlighted the newcomers, great value options, and editors' picks; and, for the first time, recognized the 97 Hall of Fame winners that have been on the list for a solid decade.

The Top 100 Hotels

For the second year in a row, Travel + Leisure readers have voted Tanzania's Singita Grumeti Reserves, on the edge of Serengeti National Park, as their favorite hotel in the world. And for the first time in World's Best history, a Costa Rican resort breaks into the Top 10 at No. 6, a sign of the destination's massive popularity. But the biggest Top 100 breakthrough comes from down under: Australia's 21-suite Southern Ocean Lodge, the country's first luxury wilderness retreat, which opened just four years ago, makes its World's Best Awards debut in the No. 3 slot.

OVERALL

WALDORF ASTORIA,
CHICAGO

NO. 1 LARGE
CITY HOTEL
CONTINENTAL U.S.

When it comes to urban hotels, T+L readers love Chicago. For the third consecutive year, the lakefront metropolis is home to the top-scoring Large City Hotel. But Manhattan icons are worthy rivals; both cities are home to six winners. In the West, Montana's Triple Creek Ranch retained its No. 1 rank in the Inns category, and almost 25 percent of Resort winners are located in Colorado and Utah, despite a challenging year for snowfall. A strong showing from Charleston, South Carolina—including a first-time win for the 19th-century Wentworth Mansion in the Small City Hotel category—is proof that Southern escapes still have their charms.
